- ii) Pursuant to this Scheme, the Transferee Company shall file the requisite forms with the Registrar of Companies for alteration of its authorized share capital.
- iii) The amendment pursuant to this sub-clause (e) of Clause 10 shall become operative on the Scheme becoming effective by virtue of the fact that the shareholders of the Transferee Company, while approving the Scheme as a whole, have approved and accorded the relevant consents as required under the Act for amendment of the Memorandum of Association and shall not be required to pass separate resolutions under the applicable provisions of the Act.
- iv) It is hereby clarified that for the purposes of this sub-clause (e) of Clause 10, the consent of the shareholders of the Transferee Company to the Scheme shall be deemed to be sufficient for the purposes of effecting the above amendment and increase in authorised share capital of the Transferee Company, and no further resolution under Section 13, Section 14, Section 42, Section 61, Section 62 and Section 64 of the Act or any other applicable provisions of the Act, would be required to be separately passed.

11. Accounting Treatment

Upon this Scheme becoming effective, the merger of the Transferor Company being in the nature of business combination of entities under common control, shall be recorded in the books of accounts of Transferee Company in accordance with the 'Pooling of Interest Method' of accounting as laid out in Appendix C – 'Business Combinations of entities under common control' of Ind AS 103 – 'Business Combinations', notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 and other accounting principles generally accepted in India, as follows

- a) All assets, liabilities and reserves of the Transferor Company shall stand transferred to and vested in the Transferee Company pursuant to the Scheme and shall be recorded in the books of account of the Transferee Company at their existing carrying amounts and in the same form as recorded in the books of account of the Transferor Company.
- b) In case of any differences in accounting policies between the Transferor Company and the Transferee Company, the accounting policies followed by the Transferee Company will prevail and, the impact of the same shall be quantified and the same shall be appropriately adjusted against the revenue reserves of the Transferee Company to ensure that the merged financial statements of the Transferee Company reflect the financial position on the basis of consistent accounting policies.

- c) The comparative financial information presented in the financial statements of the Transferee Company shall be restated for the accounting impact of merger, as if the business combination had occurred from the beginning of the preceding period in the financial statements irrespective of actual date of the combination.
- d) The identity of the reserves of the Transferor Company shall be preserved and they shall appear in the books of accounts of Transferee Company in the same form and manner, as appearing in the books of accounts of Transferor Company. As a result of preserving the identity, reserves which are available for distribution as dividend before the business combination would also be available for distribution as dividend after the business combination.
- e) Any inter-company balances between Transferee Company and the Transferor Company, if any, shall stand cancelled and there shall be no further obligation/outstanding in that behalf.
- f) The face value of equity shares issued by the Transferee Company to the shareholders of the Transferor Company in accordance with Clause 10 of the Scheme, will be recorded as equity share capital of the Transferee Company.
- g) The difference arising between the carrying value of the assets, liabilities and reserves pertaining to the Transferor Company recognized as per clause (a) to (e) above and the amount recorded as share capital issued by Transferee Company in terms of clause (f) above, shall be, in case of deficit, adjusted to existing capital reserves and revenue reserves of the Transferee Company, in that order, and if the Transferee Company has no reserves or has inadequate reserves, then the remaining deficit will be debited to an account titled 'Amalgamation Adjustment Deficit Account' under 'Other Equity'. In case of surplus, the difference will be credited to capital reserves in the books of accounts of Transferee Company and shall be presented separately from other capital reserves of the Transferee Company with disclosure of its nature and purpose in the notes.

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS AND OTHER MATTERS CONSEQUENTIAL AND INTEGRALLY CONNECTED WITH THE SCHEME

12. Compliance with Tax Laws

- a) This Scheme, has been drawn up to comply with the conditions relating to 'Amalgamation' as specified under the Tax Laws, specifically Section 2(1B) of the IT Act, which include the following:
- i) all the property of the Transferor Company immediately before the amalgamation becomes the property of the Transferee Company by virtue of the amalgamation;
 - ii) all the liabilities of the Transferor Company immediately before the amalgamation become the liabilities of the Transferee Company by virtue of the amalgamation;
 - iii) shareholders holding not less than three-fourths in value of the shares in the Transferor Company (other than shares already held therein immediately before the amalgamation by, or by a nominee for, the Transferee Company or its subsidiary) become shareholders of the Transferee Company by virtue of the amalgamation, otherwise than as a result of the acquisition of the property of one Company by the other Company pursuant to the purchase of such property by the other Company or as a result of the distribution of such property to the other Company after the winding up of the first mentioned Company.
- b) This Scheme has been drawn up to comply with the conditions relating to 'Amalgamation' as specified under the IT Act, specifically Section 2(1B) of the IT Act. If any of the terms or provisions of the Scheme are found or interpreted to be inconsistent with the provisions of the section 2(1B) of the IT Act at a later date including resulting from an amendment of law or for any other reason whatsoever, the provisions of the said section of the IT Act shall prevail and the Scheme shall stand modified to the extent determined necessary to comply with Section 2(1B) of the IT Act. Such modifications will however not affect the other parts of the Scheme
- c) If any terms or provisions of the Scheme are found to be or interpreted to be inconsistent with any of the said provisions at a later date, whether as a result of any amendment of law or any judicial or executive interpretation or for any other reason whatsoever, the aforesaid provisions of the Tax Laws shall prevail. This Scheme shall then stand modified to the extent determined necessary to comply with the said provisions. Notwithstanding the other provisions of this Scheme, the power to make such amendments as may become necessary shall vest with the Board of Directors of the Transferee Company, which power shall be
